(b) Garlic ..	1. Ex-Madras .. 254 2. Ex-Bombay .. 564 3. Ex-Calcutta .. 80 4. Ex-Calcutta .. 1170	Do. Do. Do. Burma and other permissible far Eastern Countries.
(c) Chillies ..	1. Ex-Bombay .. 82 2. Ex-Madras .. 360 3. Ex-Calcutta .. 750	Ceylon, East Africa, and other permissible far Eastern Countries. Ceylon. Ceylon, Burma and other permissible far Eastern Countries.

2. All individuals and firms in the Indian dominion are eligible to apply under this scheme.

3. Applications should be made in the form appended below. Copies of the form can be had from the offices of the Deputy Controller of Exports, Bombay[Calcutta, and Export Trade Controller, Madras. Applications should be addressed to the Deputy Chief Controller of Exports, Bombay[Calcutta, or the Export Trade Controller, Madras, as the case may be, and submitted through the Director Civil Supplies, Himachal Pradesh. The Administration of Himachal Pradesh will then forward them to the Deputy Chief Controller of Exports, Bombay[Calcutta or Export Trade Controller, Madras, with comments. The export licences will be issued by these officers to the applicants selected by the Government of India. The name of the port of export (i.e. either Bombay, Calcutta or Madras) should invariably be mentioned in the application. A separate application should be made for each destination and for each commodity, and it must reach the office of the Director, Civil Supplies, Himachal Pradesh, through the Deputy Commissioner of the area in which the applicant resides, before the 25th November 1948. No application will be considered unless it is accompanied by an original Government Treasury Receipt for a sum of Rs. 10/- (rupees ten only) in the case of bonafide Refugees and a sum of Rs. 50/- (Rupees fifty only) in the case of other “New Commers” for each port. The application fees which may be credited at a Government Treasury under the head “XLVI—MISCELLANEOUS”, will not be refunded in any case. Applications from Refugees must be accompanied by a certificate from the Himachal Pradesh Administration to show that they are bonafide Refugees.

4. It is the intention of the Government of Indian to distribute not less than 5 per cent. of quota of each commodity among Refugees. The grant or export licences under this scheme will otherwise be subject to the general regulations applied to licences granted to approved shippers.

5. In view of the limited quotas available for distribution, it may not be possible for the Government of India to grant licences to all applicants. The decision of the Government of India in regard to grant of licences will be final.

By order,

E. P. MOON,
Deputy Chief Commissioner,
Himachal Pradesh.

The application shall be considered by the Judicial Commissioner, and if granted, the Registrar on payment within one month of the date of the order of the requisite stamp duty of the value of Rs. 300, supplied in non-judicial stamps, shall deliver the certificate of admission and enrolment as Advocate in Form No. I, annexed to these rules, under his signature and the seal of the Court and his name will be enrolled in the Court's Roll of Advocates.

6. If the requisite duty is not paid within the specified period the order of enrolment shall automatically stand cancelled.

7. An Advocate may on payment of a fee of Rs. 5 obtain a certificate in the annexed Form No. II under signature of the Registrar and seal of the Court that his name is borne on the Roll of Advocates of the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

8. Only Advocates duly admitted and enrolled under the above Rules are entitled to appear, act and plead in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner.

9. By special permission of the Judicial Commissioner, granted for a particular occasion, an Advocate on the Roll of any other High Court in India, may if there be with him, in an appeal or other proceeding in the Court, an Advocate on the roll in the court of the Judicial Commissioner, appear and plead in Court in such appeal or other proceeding on such occasion.

10. Any Advocate on the Roll of the Court and not under suspension may in this Court appear and plead for any other Advocate on the Roll of the Court and not under suspension in any appeal or proceeding in the Court in which such other Advocate is engaged for a client, but may not act without filling a document prescribed by Order III, rule 4(1) of the Code of Civil Procedure.

PART II

Enrolment of pleaders 1st Grade

1. The following persons may if the Judicial Commissioner thinks fit be admitted and enrolled as Pleaders 1st grade.

- (a) Persons who are graduates in the Faculty of Arts or of Science, Commerce or Agriculture and who have also obtained the degrees of Bachelor of Laws at one of the recognized Universities in the Indian Dominion including the Punjab or the United Kingdom.
- (b) Advocates, Vakils, Attorneys and Pleaders of any High Court of Judicature established by Royal Charter whose names continue on the Roll of such Court.
- (c) Advocates, Vakils, Attorneys and such Pleaders who are not graduates and Bachelor of Laws of any of the recognized Universities in the Indian Dominion but who have been regularly practising under a licence or certificate granted to them by any State or States now forming Himachal Pradesh, in one or more Courts of such State or States for at least three years upto the 15th August, 1948 and who satisfy the Judicial Commissioner, that they are qualified to practise as such.

2. The application, to be admitted as a Pleader I grade shall be made in writing to the Judicial Commissioner, stamped under clause (d) Article (1) Schedule II of Act VII of 1870. The application shall be dated and signed by the applicant and shall state :—

- (a) the age of the applicant.
- (b) the nature of qualifications under Rule 1, in respect of which application is made.
- (c) the years in which the applicant graduated and obtained the degree of Bachelor of Laws.
- (d) whether the applicant holds any appointment under Government and if so, its nature.
- (e) whether the applicant has been convicted by a Criminal Court or dismissed from Government or State Service.
- (f) that the applicant intends to practise within the jurisdiction of the Court of the Judicial Commissioner.
- (g) the District which he proposes to make his ordinary place of business.
- (h) whether he has been declared an insolvent.
- (i) whether he is a discharged insolvent and if so whether that insolvency was due to any misfortune or circumstances beyond his control.

The application shall be accompanied by evidence of the required qualifications and by the fee fixed under the rules. The applicant should produce a certificate from the Principal of the Law College in which he has studied and another from a person of status and respectability, other than a member of the staff of the Law College, that he is suitable to be admitted as a Pleader.

The application shall also be accompanied by a written undertaking similar to the one, referred to in Rule 4(e) Part I and a declaration, similar to the one referred to in Rule 4(f) Part I.

3. The application, mentioned in Rule 2 above, shall be presented by the applicant to the Registrar, personally or through an Advocate practising in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner. The application shall be considered by the Judicial Commissioner and if granted, the Registrar on the applicant's furnishing the requisite stamp paper and declaration in writing stating the Civil, Criminal and Revenue Courts and Offices which he desires to be specified therein shall give to him a certificate of admission under his signature and Seal of the Court in Form No. III, annexed to these Rules.

4. The application to be enrolled as Pleader 1st grade under section 8 of the Legal Practitioners Act (XVIII of 1879) shall be made in writing stamped with a Court Fee Stamp of Re. 1 to the Court of the District Judge in which the applicant desires to get himself enrolled along with the certificate of admission granted by the Judicial Commissioner and shall be presented in person or through an Advocate or Pleader practising in such Court. If it appears from the certificate, that the applicant is entitled to be enrolled, his name shall be entered in a register, to be maintained in Form No. IV and the District Judge will endorse on his certificate a memorandum in Form No. V, annexed to these Rules.

5. The fee payable on enrolment as Pleader 1st grade shall be Rs. 25 per annum supplied in non-judicial stamps of that value.

6. Every District Judge shall maintain a personal file for each Pleader who practises in his District in which all papers relating to him should be placed. Only the last cancelled certificate should be retained, other cancelled certificates being destroyed. Of the other papers in the personal file only important one should be retained and others should be destroyed by order of the District Judge, five years after the close of the year to which they relate. On the death of the Pleader the remaining papers also shall be destroyed. The personal file of a Pleader who has not renewed his certificate for 3 years shall be sent to the Registrar. When a Pleader changes his place of business to another District his file should be sent to the District Judge of that District.

7. Certificates of enrolment will remain in force for one year commencing with the fifteenth of August.

On 1st September each year a statement will be submitted by the District Judge to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner showing certificates renewed for the current year and the names of all Pleaders in the District who may have omitted to renew their certificates though bound to do so if they desire to continue to practice. A list of such Pleaders will be affixed to the Court House with an intimation of the penalties to which they are liable if found practising without renewing their certificates. The names of all Advocates holding certificates to practise permanently and who may be practising in the District should be given in an appendix thereto. If any Advocate has ceased to practise in the District since submission of last revision, then the fact and cause of such cessation will be entered in that appendix.

8. A Court Fee of Re. 10 shall be payable by each applicant who is admitted by the Judicial Commissioner to be a Pleader 1st grade under the foregoing rules.

Rules for admission as pleaders II grade

1. The following persons may, if the Judicial Commissioner thinks fit, be admitted as Pleaders II grade :—

- (a) Persons admitted as Mukhtars by the East Punjab High Court.
- (b) Persons who have been duly admitted and enrolled or registered as Mukhtars by any State or States, now forming the Himachal Pradesh, prior to the 15th August, 1948.

2. The application for admission shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 15 supplied in non-judicial stamps of that value, along with the certificate or licence.

3. Subject to the foregoing two Rules Nos. 1 and 2, the Rules regarding the admission and enrolment of Pleader I grade, shall also apply to Pleaders II grade, so far as those Rules may be applicable.

PART III

Powers and duties of advocates and pleaders

1. No Advocate or Pleader is authorized to practise before due enrolment nor can he act for any person without due appointment under Order III Rule 4 C.P.C. On due enrolment, an Advocate is entitled to plead, act or appear in any suit or proceeding in any Court in Himachal Pradesh and a Pleader is entitled to plead, act or appear in the Courts specified in his certificate.

2. No Advocate or Pleader engaged for pleading only shall so plead for any person unless he has filed a memo. of appearance or unless he has been engaged by another Advocate or Pleader duly appointed to act in the Court on his behalf as required by Order III Rule 4 C.P.C.

3. Every appointment to act as an Advocate or Pleader shall contain the full name of the person or persons making that appointment and shall be executed by every such person, but where appointment or power is not executed by the principal himself but by some one on his behalf, further proof should be given that such person was duly authorized by the principal to execute that appointment or power.

4. Except with the special leave of the Court concerned no Advocate or Pleader shall in his own name or in the names of any other person or persons, purchase any property sold in execution of a decree or order in any suit, appeal, or other proceeding pending in a Court in which he was in any way professionally engaged.

5. An Advocate or a Pleader who receives any money from his client, must furnish him with a statement of account, with receipts, where these can be obtained, for all sums above Rs. 5 disbursed on his behalf.

6. Where an Advocate or Pleader accepts any appointment or engages in money-trading or in any other trade or business, he shall at once give notice thereof to the Registrar and the Judicial Commissioner may suspend him from practice.

7. No Advocate will be entitled to appear and plead in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, unless he wears a black gown without sleeves along with band or black coat or achkan along with bands. A Barrister will be entitled to wear a gown prescribed for Barristers in England or Scotland.

PART IV

Renewal of certificates

1. All applications for renewal of certificates shall be presented to the District Judge of the District where the applicant ordinarily practises at least two weeks prior to the expiry of the certificate and shall be accompanied by the expiring certificate and by a declaration stating the applicant's ordinary place of business and the Civil, Criminal and Revenue Courts and Offices which he desires to be specified. The application shall be presented by the applicant in person or by an Advocate or Pleader practising in that Court.

Note.—Such applications do not require to be stamped.

2. On supply of requisite stamp paper a renewed certificate will be prepared and issued by the District Judge to the applicant if he attends personally or to the Advocate or Pleader through whom application has been presented and the memo : of enrolment recorded on the expiring certificate shall be endorsed on the renewed certificate which shall be authenticated by the renewing officer. After the certificate is so renewed by the District Judge he shall at once notify such renewal to the Judicial Commissioner and cancel and place the Superseded certificate on record in his office.

3. A Pleader who does not intend to renew his certificate shall before its expiry inform the District Judge of the District of such intention. In the absence of such information he shall not subsequently be entitled to have it renewed without further orders from the Court of the Judicial Commissioner which may, if it thinks fit, require payment of renewal fees for the entire period during which the certificate has not been renewed.

4. If a Pleader applying for renewal in a District in which he has not been practising, declares that he had changed his place of business and intends to practise in that District, the District Judge shall renew his certificate and report the fact to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner and also inform the District Judge in whose District, the Pleader has hitherto been practising, to remove the name of the Pleader from his register.

5. In case a lapsed certificate is not renewed within three years, the name of the practitioner shall, on expiry of that period, be struck off the register and the fact intimated to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner.

6. The renewal fee shall be Rs. 25 per annum in case of Pleaders I grade and Rs. 15 in case of Pleaders II grade. It shall be chargeable in non-judicial stamps.

PART V.

Suspension and Dismissal of Advocates and Pleaders

1. Any Court subordinate to the Judicial Commissioner, adjudging an Advocate or Pleader to be insolvent shall at once send a copy of the Order to the Registrar who shall lay it before the Judicial Commissioner. The Judicial Commissioner shall fix a date for which notice shall issue to the Advocate or Pleader to appear and show cause why he should not be suspended, till the date of his discharge or till the order of adjudication is cancelled. On the date fixed the Judicial Commissioner shall, after hearing the Advocate or Pleader in person or his Counsel or if he does not appear, although served, and is not represented by Counsel, in his absence, pass orders suspending the Advocate, until such time as he is discharged whether conditionally or not or until order of Adjudication is annulled unless for good and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing he considers it unnecessary to suspend him.

2. Any Criminal Court subordinate to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, when convicting an Advocate or Pleader of any offence shall at once report the fact to the Registrar along with a copy of its judgement who shall lay it before the Judicial Commissioner. The Judicial Commissioner may make such preliminary enquiry as he may consider necessary and if he is of opinion that a prima facie case is made out for taking action against the Advocate or Pleader, a notice may be issued to show cause why the Advocate or Pleader should not be suspended or dismissed. If such Advocate or Pleader fails to show cause, the Judicial Commissioner, may suspend or dismiss him.

3. The Judicial Commissioner, after due notice and hearing, may for good cause, appearing to him an order in writing under his signature and the seal of the Court reprimand, suspend or remove from the Rolls of the Court any Advocate or Pleader. Such order shall state what such good cause was.

4. Any person making allegations of professional misconduct against an Advocate or Pleader, shall be required to submit them in the form of a written petition and, unless the complainant is a public servant acting in his official capacity, shall be required to support them by an affidavit.

On the receipt of such a petition, the Registrar shall call upon the Advocate or Pleader to submit within 14 days of the receipt of the notice, a written statement in answer to the allegations made. On receipt of such statement or if no statement is received on the expiry of the period of 14 days, the Registrar shall lay the papers before the Judicial Commissioner, who may order an enquiry into the allegations and pass such other order as he may deem fit.

5. The Judicial Commissioner may also for good cause, on reconsideration, modify or cancel any order of suspension or dismissal of an Advocate or Pleader.
